What TO DO and what NOT TO DO

TO DO

1. DO respect the supervisor and establish a good personal relationship with him/her, because the supervisors usually have the power to give you more funding and work opportunities.
2. DO try to publish as many papers as possible, the Chinese academic culture value the number very much, but DO NOT multi-submit papers at different publications. Usually you need to pay a fee for the publisher to publish your paper.

NOT TO DO

1. DO NOT openly criticise of the Communist Party and the government, even though you are in an academic area.
2. DO NOT openly talk about some sensitive topics in China, for example, the Tian'anmen incident or the Dalai Lama.
3. DO NOT copy, plagiarize, misappropriate or tamper with others' academic achievements.
4. DO NOT fake or exaggerate academic experience.
